The dust of the elevators and the odor of the phosphates is added to that which floats over the narrow strip of territory separating the building from the city. The firemen are not on duty here about the fire, freight house while the dull hours pass along.

The pickets did not become more and more difficult to perform as last night drew on. Hundreds of hand-laboring men had been gathered around the street all day. When they congregated in groups of any size the guard gave the order to "move on," and suddenly the conference broke up only to be resumed in the more secure confines of some one of the dingy sailors' groupings that line the north side of the street.

GOING TO OBLIGE SWEENEY.

Mr. Sargent Has Nothing Else to Call Him to Buffalo.

By Associated Press.

Buffalo, Aug. 22.—Grand Master Sargent, of the Firemen's Brotherhood, left for Buffalo yesterday at the urgent request of Grand Master Sweeney, of the Switchmen.

Before his departure he said: "I have told you for several days past that I have not had a single word from the firemen respecting this strike, and that statement still holds good."

"This request for me to go to Buffalo does not come from my own organization, but from Mr. Sweeney, of the switchmen. I esteem Mr. Sweeney very highly, and I could not refuse to do as he asked. But my going to Buffalo does not mean that I am going to order a firemen's strike."

"I have sympathy with striking switchmen, for I do not believe they were ordered out without cause. I hope they will win, but unless we have grievances we can do nothing. The federation was dissolved last June, and this is a strike of Mr. Sweeney's organization. I had not expected to be called to Buffalo, and saw nothing in the situation that required my presence there."

CHICAGO TRAINMEN SYMPATHIZE.

Angry at McLeod's Designation of the Switchmen as "Outlaws."

Chicago, Aug. 22.—At a mass-meeting of trainmen yesterday a resolution was adopted expressing sympathy with and indorsement of the stand taken by the Chicago switchmen to go on a strike if they were ordered to do so as an outgrowth of the trouble at Buffalo.

A reading of the resolution was made last night. "President McLeod's letter saying that the switchmen are entitled to the consideration of outlaws is a true to the strong. All classes of railway employees must necessarily stand together against men who use such expressions."

CENTRAL PEOPLE CONFIDENT.

Vice-President Webb Expects Everybody to Go Home Soon.

By Associated Press.

Buffalo, Aug. 22.—Vice-President Webb of the Buffalo Central people, who are looking for work and cheerfully when an Associated Press correspondent called upon him at 8 o'clock this morning.

Mr. Webb declares that the Central is doing its normal amount of business, both eastward and westward. Four hundred cars had been received from the Lake Shore in the morning, and he expects to receive three hundred more in the afternoon.

Today the Lake Shore would probably do a full day's work, Mr. Webb said.

"Everything is as calm as dish-water," he added, "and I guess every one will get away from here in from twelve to twenty-four hours."

BYRNES'S POLICE RESERVES.

Held in Readiness for Possible Trouble in Buffalo.

There is no relaxation of the vigilance of the Police Department, reading the possibility of the strike extending to this city, and Supt. Byrnes does not intend to be caught napping in the event of any outbreak. The superintendent did not pass Sunday at his country home in Red Bank, but instead spent it in active duty at headquarters and in visiting the various precincts covering the different railroad yards.

Between 2:30 in the afternoon and 10 o'clock at night Supt. Byrnes called at no less than thirteen different street houses. They were precincts one, two, four, six, eight, ten, fifteen, twenty-nine, thirty, thirty-four, thirty-five, thirty-six, thirty-seven, thirty-eight, thirty-nine, forty, forty-one, forty-two, forty-three, forty-four, forty-five, forty-six, forty-seven, forty-eight, forty-nine, fifty, fifty-one, fifty-two, fifty-three, fifty-four, fifty-five, fifty-six, fifty-seven, fifty-eight, fifty-nine, sixty, sixty-one, sixty-two, sixty-three, sixty-four, sixty-five, sixty-six, sixty-seven, sixty-eight, sixty-nine, seventy, seventy-one, seventy-two, seventy-three, seventy-four, seventy-five, seventy-six, seventy-seven, seventy-eight, seventy-nine, eighty, eighty-one, eighty-two, eighty-three, eighty-four, eighty-five, eighty-six, eighty-seven, eighty-eight, eighty-nine, ninety, ninety-one, ninety-two, ninety-three, ninety-four, ninety-five, ninety-six, ninety-seven, ninety-eight, ninety-nine, one hundred.

THE 13TH IS A BAD LOCALITY.

Threats of Bullies and Incendiaries by the Men They Keep So Long.

By Associated Press.

Buffalo, Aug. 22.—Heard in it is by the elevators and massive warehouses on the side and by a row of low, rowing saloons on the other, the surroundings of the Thirteenth Regiment, of Brooklyn, are anything but agreeable. The section is one where the most vicious class of men in Buffalo have always made their habitation.

An organized body of about three thousand men is believed to be ready to resist the forces of the Thirteenth Regiment, and the forces of the Thirteenth Regiment are being continued.

The regiment is quartered in the New York

SUICIDE OF AN INVENTOR.

Waiting in the Armories.

No Orders Yet to Dismiss the Reserve New York Regiments.

Small squads of privates at the armories of the Seventh, Eighth and Sixty-ninth Regiments composed the guards on duty at these places this morning. These men have been on duty since Friday night and it was evident that an order from Adj. Gen. Porter, either to dismiss the reserve or to proceed to Buffalo, was impatiently awaited.

No order of any kind has been received at Brig. Gen. Louis Fitzgerald's headquarters, East Nineteenth street, since Saturday.

At the headquarters it was said this morning that the situation, so far as the city regiments were concerned, remained unchanged. The Seventh, Eighth and Sixty-ninth would continue to hold themselves in readiness for marching orders, and it was not believed that Adj. Gen. Porter would reduce the forces for several days yet. The strike, however, was considered to be practically over, and it was thought far from probable that either of the three regiments here would be sent to Buffalo.

NAVAL RESERVE ON DICK.

Steamer Naugatuck Held in Rendition for Their Summons.

The forces of the Naval Reserve Battalions have been placed at the disposal of the commander of the military engaged in quelling the strike troubles at Buffalo, and the steamer Naugatuck is lying at pier 30, North River, ready for their instant use.

Commander Miller, of the Reserve, says that the Naugatuck could steam to Albany, where the sailors would take train for a fair, or if the disturbances threatened New York interests, his forces could operate in the harbor, protecting the property of the railroads on either bank of the river.

No call, however, has been made upon the Naval Reserve.

FOURTEENTH STILL READY TO GO.

Soldiers Hunt the Armory in Expectation of Orders.

Besides a corporal and three privates from each company of the Fourteenth Regiment, under Capt. Lloyd and Lieut. Gilson, detailed for notification duty, there were nearly a hundred members of the regiment in and about the armory this morning.

Lieut. Gilson, officer of the day, denied the report that the men had exhibited any ill-will at having been assembled at the armory Saturday night through the alleged misinterpretation by Col. Michel of the order issued by Gen. McLeer Saturday afternoon, to the effect that the regiment be held in readiness to move on short notice.

There was a general impression among the men that they were going to Buffalo at once.

The regiment was not dismissed until yesterday afternoon.

Gen. McLeer said this morning that the report that Col. Michel misunderstood his order had been a mistake. He said that the regiment had been ordered to go to Buffalo at once, and that the order was not to be misinterpreted.

He said that he had been extremely disappointed that the regiment had been called to Buffalo at once, and that he had been extremely disappointed that the regiment had been called to Buffalo at once.

"Rev. Mr. Radcliffe," a Supply, Charged with Stealing.

By Associated Press.

LAMBERTVILLE, N. J., Aug. 22.—Since the return from his vacation of Rev. E. R. Smith, pastor of the Episcopal Church here, "Mr. Radcliffe," who died of the plague in his place during his absence, has been charged with stealing, and he is not here to refute it. He disappeared a day or two prior to Dr. Smith's return.

Radcliffe introduced himself to Bishop Scarborough, of Trenton, six weeks ago, and offered to supply pulpits during the holidays of the ministers. The bishop assigned Radcliffe to Dr. Smith's church, and it is alleged that during his absence he had stolen a large amount of money from the church.

Radcliffe was a man of about thirty-five years of age, very dark, and very honest. He is about thirty-five years of age.

Frank Gorman's Awful Death at Coney Island.

The body of Frank Gorman, who was killed by being struck and run over by a train of the Coney Island and Brooklyn Electric Railway last night, was still at Stillwell's Morgue, Gravesend, this morning.

Gorman, who lived at King's Highway, near Coney Island, was walking last evening when he was struck by the train. He was killed instantly.

The body was found by a passerby, who called the attention of the police to it. The body was found under an electric car.

BIG FIRE IN ST. LOUIS.

$50,000 Damage Quickly Done and Still More Threatened.

By Associated Press.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Aug. 22.—Fire has just broken out in a three-story building midway between Pine and Olive, on Sixth street. A number of engines are already at the scene, but the fire will be a hard one to get under control.

The building is owned by John O'Neill, who has recently moved into the rear portion of it as a palatial residence. The rest of the building is occupied by a number of small shops.

The fire is believed to have been caused by a gas leak. The fire is believed to have been caused by a gas leak.

Stabbed in an Ear Morning Row.

Waiting in the Armories.

No Orders Yet to Dismiss the Reserve New York Regiments.

Small squads of privates at the armories of the Seventh, Eighth and Sixty-ninth Regiments composed the guards on duty at these places this morning. These men have been on duty since Friday night and it was evident that an order from Adj. Gen. Porter, either to dismiss the reserve or to proceed to Buffalo, was impatiently awaited.

No order of any kind has been received at Brig. Gen. Louis Fitzgerald's headquarters, East Nineteenth street, since Saturday.

At the headquarters it was said this morning that the situation, so far as the city regiments were concerned, remained unchanged. The Seventh, Eighth and Sixty-ninth would continue to hold themselves in readiness for marching orders, and it was not believed that Adj. Gen. Porter would reduce the forces for several days yet. The strike, however, was considered to be practically over, and it was thought far from probable that either of the three regiments here would be sent to Buffalo.

NAVAL RESERVE ON DICK.

Steamer Naugatuck Held in Rendition for Their Summons.

The forces of the Naval Reserve Battalions have been placed at the disposal of the commander of the military engaged in quelling the strike troubles at Buffalo, and the steamer Naugatuck is lying at pier 30, North River, ready for their instant use.

Commander Miller, of the Reserve, says that the Naugatuck could steam to Albany, where the sailors would take train for a fair, or if the disturbances threatened New York interests, his forces could operate in the harbor, protecting the property of the railroads on either bank of the river.

No call, however, has been made upon the Naval Reserve.

FOURTEENTH STILL READY TO GO.
